

FIRST VOICE
Urban Indigenous Coalition

MEDIA ADVISORY

First Voice Community Action Plan to be Released to the Public

MEDIA ADVISORY

For immediate release:

Monday, February 6, 2023

St. John's, NL – After three years of work, First Voice Urban Indigenous Coalition will be releasing its Community Action Plan to the public. The Action Plan lists 42 Calls for Change that have been informed by the Calls to Action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, the Calls for Justice of the MMIWG National Inquiry, and the principles of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

The public launch event will proceed as follows. Stacey Howse, Executive Director of First Light, will begin the event with opening remarks, followed by Justin Campbell, First Light's Director of Research and Strategic Partnerships, who will provide an overview of the Community Action Plan on behalf of First Voice. Mayor Danny Breen will then deliver remarks on behalf of the City of St. John's. Both Members of Parliament for St. John's have been invited to do the same on behalf of the federal government.

Date: Thursday, February 9, 2023

Time: 10am

Location: First Light Centre for Performance & Creativity
42 Bannerman Street (found here on Google Maps)
St. John's, NL

First Voice is a coalition of Indigenous Peoples, service providers, and all levels of government working together to advance truth and reconciliation in St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador.

- 30 -

Media Contact: Daniel Smith, Partner Relations Coordinator, First Light: St. John's Friendship Centre
daniel@firstlightnl.ca 709.693.9133