

SPRING

Written by: Elder Marjorie Muise (April 2025)

 speak to me
 a season to be free
dewdrops on the flowers
 brings may showers

 egg-laying moon
 out on the land
gentle on Mother Earth
 restoring my spirit

 butterfly
 once a caterpillar
toads on the Lilly pod
 ferns in the water

 life has changed
 Spiritual awakening
red-breasted Robin
 reclaiming territory

 clashing of the waves
 ice in the bay
Six more weeks of winter
 the elders might say

 freeze and the thaw Buds how they burst
 birds how they claw
children on the see-saw

 spring is unpredictable spirit is renewal
sludging through the puddles spring is now a visual....
